

HOME NEWS.

THERMOMETER YESTERDAY AT HUBBUTS NO. 218 BROADWAY.

9 a.m., 62°. Noon, 66°. 3 p.m., 68°. Morning, 46°.

Highest during the day, 66°. Lowest, 46°.

Average, 59.4°. Same day, 1878, 45.8°.

CENTRAL PARK METEORLOGICAL OBSERVATORY.

ABSTRACT OF REPORT FOR THE WEEK ENDING AT 1 P.M. OCT. 18, 1879.

BAROMETER. THERMOMETER. DEGRESS.

Mean, 30.053 Mean, 65.2

Max. at 6 a.m. Oct. 12, 30.150 Max. at 3 p.m. Oct. 14, 65.5

Min. at 1 p.m. Oct. 18, 29.500 Min. at 6 a.m. Oct. 14, 42.9

341 Range, 35.6 Min. at 6 a.m. Oct. 14, 34.

Distance travelled by the wind during the week, 441 miles.

STRENGTH OF WINDS.

Amount of water.

Oct. 12, rain from 6 a.m. to 2 p.m., .01 in.

PASSENGERS ARRIVED.

Fifth Avenue Hotel.—Senator J. M. G. Blaine, of Maine; Judge Skinner, of St. Louis; L. D. M. Sweet, of Portland, and General J. S. McKeehan, of New Jersey.

Wheaton, Mrs. and General T. C. Tamm.

Commander in the Royal Navy.

Major-General Sir George Grey, Governor General of Canada.

Captain, the Hon. John W. Davis, of the Royal Artillery, British Army.

Navy—Colonel John W. Davis, of Newport, R. I.

NEW-YORK CITY.

The Grand Jury has issued an indictment against Pietro Barberi or his son, or both, it will probably be arraigned in the next few days.

Mrs. Nugent, the wife of the police officer complained in the Tombs for complicity in the Mandan

Safety Bank robbery, called to see her husband on Saturday. She was with her young son, son, whom Nugent had for the first time.

The amount of grain in hand on the canal between Buffalo and Oswego, at noon, coming into the port, 5,700,000 bushels; oats, 102,000 bushels; barley, 382,000 bushels; rye, 35,000 bushels.

Speeches were made by William Cashmore and

A. Stauffer, president of the cigar-makers' Union, and others, at the tailors' mass meeting yesterday.

There was a much smaller attendance than at the meeting last Sunday. It was stated that fifty names had been added to the Union during the week.

There was a check in the rise in the breadbaskets of the country, one tobacconist in the West said, "We have given up our tobacco and were drowned in the life-story of the tenant at No. 530 West Twenty-fourth-st., and was killed instantly. A boy named

Otto Sundermeyer, who died at No. 710 Eightieth-ave., was drowned while playing at the foot of West

Seventy-ninth-st.

The meeting of the American Temperance Union was held yesterday afternoon at Haverty's Theatre on West 45th-st., to pay tribute to Dr. W. G. Green.

Dr. Green introduced the Rev. Dr.

James Hayes, of Ossining, a member of the Society of Friends, who spoke of the incidents caused by crime, and related numerous incidents which had come to his notice in his twenty years career as a temperance advocate.

At the Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.

At Essex Market Police Court yesterday, before

Justice Morgan, Warden Fitzsimmons of Linden

Street, charged a woman with having

handed him a whisky to their prisoner confined in

the jail for counterfeiting. He was held for trial in

defeat of $300 bail. An iron grating was placed in

front of the window so that a place to go to prevent my impudent introduction of liquor. The penality attached to the offence is one year in the Peary

Penitentiary.